

Data :

I will use Foursquare location data, it gives accurate information about the venues, tips and users. In general, I will search for hotels location and nearby restaurants to them in a define radius. I will take some example to see their menu, prices and tips in order to have clear insights about client preferences.